All consultees have been informed by letter or email about the consultation on the draft SPD, including where they can view the documents and the consultation period.

In addition, the document is being made available for general public consultation.

Advertisement

Publication of the draft SPD has been advertised formally in the local newspaper. The advertisement tells people what the document is about, where they can view the document, where they should send their comments, and the closing date for comments.

Web site

The consultation documents are on the Eastleigh Borough council web site at www.eastleigh.gov.uk/OBCA, along with the address for correspondence and enquiries, and the closing date for comments.

Other opportunities to view the consultation documents

Hard copies of the document have been placed at Eastleigh Borough Council offices in Leigh Road, the Town Centre Office, and Local Parish Council Offices, where they can be viewed during opening hours. A staffed exhibition will also be held at the Bursledon Village Hall, Long Lane, Bursledon on Wednesday 6th April from 6.00pm to 8.30pm and on Saturday 9th April from 9.30am to 12.30pm.
